Domino's Pizza Celebrates 30th Anniversary in The Bahamas:

Thursday, 26th April 2022: Domino's Bahamas, the nation's best loved pizza company, marked its 30th birthday by presenting long serving Employee Ominique Davis, Assistant District Manager, with the Domino's International 30-year ring.

Ms. Davis was chosen to be the recipient of the prestigious award in recognition of her leadership skills, commitment to employees, customer service and operational excellence over her 18-year tenure with AML Foods and Domino's Pizza Bahamas.

Ms. Davis said she was honored to receive the Domino's International ring awarded by the International Franchise. She further stated; "For me, this is a personal accomplishment showing that I have made my mark in an organization I have grown to love. My job has allowed me to not only serve the local community with excellence, but also form valuable emotional connections with my many customers in all the neighborhoods that Domino's serves. I am grateful for the opportunity I have been given and I look forward to an even brighter future. Turning 30 never tasted so good".

Gavin Watchorn, President, AML Foods Limited, said; "We're so proud to be celebrating our 30th year in The Bahamas. I would like to extend a big thank you to our customers because without your support this milestone would not have been possible. I would also like to thank Ominique for her years of dedicated service to Domino's, working to ensure that we always provide the best deals and experiences for our customers. We recognize your valuable contribution throughout the years, and we are extremely proud and grateful".
