Press Release: Solomon's Yamacraw Host's Largest Community Event of the Year!

Solomon's is committed to 'Sparking Change' in the neighborhoods and communities they serve.

On Saturday, July 30th, Solomon's Yamacraw in New Providence welcomed shoppers to the largest Community event of the year. The event, under the theme "Welcome Back Because Family Matters," was held to Thank the Yamacraw and surrounding communities for their continuous support and loyalty during and after the pandemic.

The highlight of the event was "Stalked Shelves," "Hot Sizzling Specials," and "One Day Only BOGO Deals" for all "My Solomon's Smart Rewards" shoppers.

The event also provided customers with Free health screenings, products and food sampling as well as a chance to spin the wheel and win amazing prizes like gas vouchers, mammograms, Solomon's branded items, Domino's Pizza, and Solomon's gift cards. Those who brought their kids to shop that day also got a major treat: popcorn, cotton candy, snow cones, face painting, balloon art, Kiddie Mascots, giant games, bouncing castles, and the Best Show in the world, a Junkanoo Rush Out.

The event also highlighted local Bahamian Craft Artisans who displayed their one-of-a-kind crafts. Small businesses like My Bahamian Sponge, Martha's Condiments, Stitch & Sew, A'Lousie Designs, She Sells Seashells, and Creative and Wrapped in Elegance all showed up and gave customers a taste of their creativity.

Solomon's Yamacraw also partnered with the Bahamas Humane Society for their Adopt-A-Pet initiative. Customers had the opportunity to adopt a pet on-site at Solomon's Yamacraw or sign up for pick up later.

According to the Director of the Bahamas Humane Society, partnering with team Solomon's was a massive success for the organization. Janet Johnson said a total of 12 Dogs were adopted on site. She added that this was the most substantive number of adoptions since the organization started the initiative.

Johnson added that the inability to provide food plays a huge part in the decision to relinquish a family pet. She encourages anyone with pet food challenges to visit the Bahamas Humane Society to receive food for their pets before deciding to give them up. “Sometimes a bag of pet food makes all the difference between keeping a dog or cat at home or someone having to make the agonizing decision to relinquish their pet to a shelter.”

Over 500 dogs and lots of puppies have arrived at the shelter since the pandemic and need a home. There are never enough essential supplies for shelters to accommodate this substantial number of surrenders and strays. Animal-loving organizations like the Humane Society need help from families in every neighborhood, whether by adopting or assisting in covering costs for medical bills, nutrition, food, or other necessities.

Solomon’s Yamacraw Events Manager, Naomi Grant, said, “the event was a remarkable success. We are so thankful to all the families that came out and supported our community give-back event and worthy cause of adopting a pet.”

A Special thank you to Bahamas Wholesale, Lowes Wholesale, Coca-Cola, Asa A. Pritchard, Island Wholesale, Party House Rentals, Just Play Big Games and the Solomon’s team, who participated in the Welcome Back to Solomon’s Yamacraw event, making it a tremendous success.
