FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

AML Foods Limited successfully distributed $41,500 in food vouchers to feeding programs in New Providence, Grand Bahama, and Exuma.

AML Foods Limited recently distributed $41,500 in food vouchers to feeding programs in New Providence, Grand Bahama, and Exuma proceeds from its annual Feed 5000 holiday initiative. The company donated $6,600, and $34,900 was raised at the registers from customers shopping in Solomon's, Cost Right, Fresh Market, Exuma Markets, and Domino's Pizza.

Recipients of the Holiday Meal Packages were The Bahamas Feeding Network, The Salvation Army, The Grand Bahama chapter of the Bahamas Red Cross, and The Exuma Foundation in Georgetown, Exuma.

Since launching the Feed 5000 Program back in 2016, AML Foods has raised and distributed more than half a million dollars in food vouchers to charitable organizations. This equates to more than 14,000 Christmas Meals, feeding more than 53,000 Bahamians in need during the holiday season.

"This initiative continues to stand out as a major community outreach program for AML year over year," said Renea Bastian, VP of Marketing & Communications. "We are grateful and humbled by the support we receive from customers as well as corporate sponsors every time we launch Feed 5000. Special thanks to Insurance Management, Commonwealth Brewery Limited, The Nassau Guardian, Radio House, Island FM, More 94fm, The Mix, The Beat, Beyond The Headlines, and Cable Bahamas. The support and success we continue to see with the program truly demonstrate that when we work together, we can make a huge difference and positively impact the lives of Bahamians suffering from food insecurity in our country".
