

PRESS RELEASE:

AML Foods Limited held its Annual Awards Ceremony under the theme “It’s A Movie” on September 17th, 2023. This event was the first gathering with the entire workforce post Covid and was greatly anticipated. The event recognized our top performers in Food and Franchise Store operations for the 2022/2023 fiscal year.

The celebrations took place in Nassau at the National Training Agency with the Exuma Markets team members logging on virtually and at The Bahamas Union of Teachers Hall in Freeport.

Emcee for the night was Ozzie the Ventertainer, who made sure the crowd was hyped and remained engaged throughout the night. Giveaways ranged from movie tickets, John Bull vouchers, Bahamas Power and Light & Grand Bahama Power and Light vouchers, restaurant gift certificates, Amazon vouchers and cash prizes. The grand prize winner for the night took home a 50 inch Samsung Smart TV.

Gavin Watchorn, President and CEO of AML Foods addressed team members on the company’s future plans and thanked them for their support over the past fiscal year. He applauded the winners and encouraged those in attendance to live out one of the company’s values, “we will always be our best.”

Walking away with the Chairman’s Award - our most prestigious award, was Mr. Jeremy Hanna, Meat Merchandiser and Sophia Sands-Hanson, Development Store Manager. Our Employee of the Year Winners are: Ms. Aneita Anderson – Domino’s Manager of the Year; Vanessa Eneas – Administrative of the Year and Rudley Duncombe – Retail Manager of the Year. Additional awards for the night went to the Information & Technology Department - Administrative Department of the Year, Exuma Markets - Food Distribution of the Year and Domino’s RND Freeport won Domino’s Store of the Year.
